

LEADERSHIP SKILLS FOR NAVIGATING GLOBAL COMPLEXITIES

Collaborative Online International Learning

Unlock your potential with Kansai University's Leadership Skills for Navigating Global Complexities program. This innovative online initiative equips you with essential skills for today's rapidly evolving world. Join an international cohort, collaborate in diverse teams, and gain insights from distinguished Japanese instructors.

This program is your gateway to understanding and thriving in a globally connected, tech-integrated environment!

SESSION 1: FEBRUARY 25, 10:00-12:00 JST COURSE ORIENTATION

Session 2: February 26, 10:00-12:00 JST
Leadership for Diversity and Inclusion

Session 3: February 27, 10:00-12:00 JST
Cross-Cultural Communication

Session 4: February 28, 10:00-12:00 JST
Metacognition 1

Session 5: March 4, 10:00-12:00 JST
Metacognition 2

Session 6: March 5, 10:00 -12:00 JST
SDGs and VUCA

Session 7: March 6, 10:00-12:00 JST
Critical Thinking for the Digital Age

Session 8: March 7, 10:00-12:00 JST
Neurodiversity and Creativity

Session 9: March 11, 10:00-12:00 JST
Presentation Skills

SESSION 10: MARCH 18, 10:00-12:00 JST FINAL PRESENTATIONS

Facilitators: Prof. Aisyah Astari (Kansai University), Prof. Adrian Bercea (Kansai University), Prof. Markane Sipraseuth (Kansai University), Prof. Yoshihiro Nakajima (Osaka Metropolitan University)